

Rebecca Ann Wittrock (Collins)

June 20, 2006

Rebecca Ann (Collins) Wittrock, age 52, of Holts Summit, formerly of Versailles, passed away Tuesday evening, June 20, 2006 at St. Mary's Health Center in Jefferson City. She was born January 30, 1954 in Long Beach, California, a daughter of Marvin and Bernice King Collins.

She was united in marriage on June 17, 1972 at Grace Lutheran Church in Versailles, with James Wittrock.

Becky was a devoted homemaker, wife, mother, grandmother, and friend to all. Her life reflected a love for Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. She had a great love for Southern Gospel music for which she attended many concerts and Gaither Homecomings. Her great passion was for her grandchildren and she had them at her house as much as possible, enjoying swimming in the pool and spending time together everyday. Becky was known for her outstanding cooking. She served the folks of Concord Baptist Church for several years during the Wednesday night fellowship meals. Among all her favorite recipes, everyone knew her for her hot rolls and homemade potato salad. Despite many setbacks health wise, she always considered herself more fortunate than the next person. Her outlook on life was very positive and encouraging to all who came in contact with her.

She is survived by her husband, Jim Wittrock of the home; two daughters, Patricia Alberts and husband Russell of New Bloomfield, Renee Champney and husband Cliff of Holts Summit; two granddaughters, Samantha Wittrock and Heather Champney; one sister, Lee Collins of Jamestown, North Dakota; one uncle Basil Collins and wife Joann, of Riverside, California; two aunts, Clarice Baber and husband Bill of Anaheim Hills, California, and Darlene Dorch of Seal Beach, California, and many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, Marvin and Bernice Collins, and grandparents Clayton and Fern (Etter) Collins, and Clarence and Versa (Pevehouse) King.
