“ Rick was my first patient when I joined the Elara Caring team; despite having a few years of experience nobody could've prepared me for the goofiness and compassion this man had for his family. He looked forward to our visits and always carried a smile on his face despite his health. He showed me that strength, compassion and kindness comes in many forms other than just verbal promises. Taking care of Rick was a true honor and I hope he has found peace. Charmin, Carlene, Christy I hope everything I did was worth it in the end because he always told me "When the rain and thunder comes, I'll be thinking of Greece and those that have taken care of me". Sending you endless love and hugs. - Hannah (VA PCA / Elara Caring).
