“ Rick was a wonderful, hardworking man who we had the absolute pleasure of having as part of our team several years ago. He was someone who took the initiative to do what he saw needed to be done without having to be given direction and always knew exactly where something was when asked. We have missed having him. Our sincere sympathy and prayers to his family.

“ Rick was an amazing coworker and mentor to many at work. He had a vision for his fellow employees and seen more in most people than they could see in themselves.
You will be missed Rick.
