“ My memories of Bob are from the Wehmeyer reunions at Bland. He always had a smile on his face and seemed to just enjoy all of that family (4 and 5 generations from the start). Will miss seeing him at these future (I hope) gatherings. Nancy I know you will miss him terribly but also know that your faith and beliefs have that promise of seeing him again. Was wishing we could be there but it doesn't sound like the weather is going to cooperate. Prayers are with you all.

“ I remember when I found my birth family the summer of 1999. I showed up at Aunt Nancy and Uncle Bob's house. Uncle Bob thought I was one of Aunt Nancy's avon clients LOL. Uncle Bob took a double look and then realized I was Nikki. My dad (Donald Gee's) daughter. He was shocked that I had showed up and wanted to be a part of the family. I was looking for my roots and to know who I am. I will miss you uncle Bob. Tell my dad that I am ok and that I hope he is looking down on his grandson an I.
