

Robert Dean Kluge

August 29, 1923 - April 10, 2016

Robert Dean Kluge, age 92, of Sunrise Beach, passed away Sunday, April 10, 2016, at the Laurie Care Center. He was born August 29, 1923, in Kansas City, Kansas, a son of the late Fred and Marguerite (Zeebe) Kluge.

Bob served in the Civilian Conservation Corps for many years. In 1941, he served in the Merchant Marines where he traveled to many countries.

He was employed at Owens Corning Fiberglass, retiring after twenty-five years.

His passion was hard work and working with his hands. He built many homes, including his home at the lake. Bob enjoyed attending auctions and was an avid collector of fine and rare antiques.

He is survived by his siblings, Marie Ward, Jo Anne Ellington and Don Kluge. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his siblings, Emma Lucas, George Kluge, Marilee Kluge, Beulah Braasch, Betty Hickerson and Jackie Kluge.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m., Friday, April 15th, at the Kidwell-Garber Laurie/Sunrise Beach Chapel with his brother Don Kluge officiating. Graveside services and interment will follow in Garber Memorial Estates in Laurie. The family will receive friends from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m., Friday, at the funeral home.

Arrangements are under the direction and care of the Kidwell-Garber Laurie/Sunrise Beach Chapel.

“Daddy the last time I seen you I was 5 you picked me up to go to that dance on Minnesota st in kcks wish I would have got to know you but guess it wasn't meant to be. I know you came to mommies when I lived in Vermont I tried to call you but the lady said something not sure but I tried. Not sure if I will see you in heaven but thanks for being my dad for the short time we had together, and thanks for building the house I grew up in. Love you with all my heart rip
