. My

Heart wants to grow something. You were a gift for the Earth; you nourished it as it nourished you. What a special talent that is. May your spirit continue to enrich whatever grows in all of us who were privileged to know you

“ You will be missed Papa. I love coming to the family events enjoying beer burgers. Papa would always tell me get a beer and sit and watch me cook but usually I ended up cooking, but it was always a good time. Going to miss my flowers and veggies he would grow and share with me. Rod was a great husband and father to his kids and grand children even the ones that wasn't his. Great man and will truly be missed, Until we meet again.
