“ Ron was always so kind to us. We met at cornhole league, and then he and Marilyn introduced us to pickleball. I loved playing with Ron. He could get tickled about something and a big smile would break out on his face. It was contagious and would warm your heart. We loved playing cards with him and Marilyn and enjoyed all our chats. It was great to catch up with them on Sundays and easily could, because we liked to sit right behind them. He was ahead of us then, and now he has lead the way to be with our Lord face to face. Our love and deepest sympathies to our good friend, Marilyn, and to her family. Friendship is thankfully eternal!!
