“ I am deeply saddened to learn of the passing of an old friend from Twin Bays. Ronnie Redd was a gem among rocks. He asked me to join him and Mark and Jon to take boat rides with them, Jon next to his Dad helping to captain the ship and Mark in the middle swivel seat and me on the bow. Weekend movie nights at the drive-in, church on Sunday and breakfast at a restaurant after. He taught his boys to respect him and they always answered his questions with YES SIR or NO SIR. Truly admirable. So, Liz, Shelly, Robin, Mark and Jon I send you my deepest sympathies as you mourn the passing of a dear loved one, truly one of a kind, Ronnie Redd, may he rest in peace.
