“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Roy Chrisco. I had the privilege of knowing Ray and Mary for several years and have met Roy and William and found them to be very pleasant people. I am in charge of the Stone Hill Cemetery where the older Chrisco family are laid to rest. Our cemetery is well blessed with perpetual care. The last time that I saw Roy and William was when Mary was laid to rest. Our ancestors were friends for many generations. My thoughts and prayers go out to each one of you. I am pretty much confined to my home with Lou Gehrig's disease but would be always glad to keep in contact.

“ He also leaves his lifelong friend/caregiver Ray Jacobs. Roy always considered him more like the son he never had than a friend. Rest in Peace.
