“ Roxie and Buster were second parents to my late husband (Sam) and I. We enjoyed many fish fries at their home, If Buster wasn't catching crappie no one was. they were our sister & brother in Christ what a wonderful feeling to know they are all walking the streets of gold with our heavenly father today and forever. My love & prayers to the family. Nancy Cable

“ Roxie will be always in my heart. I have very fond memories of times spent with Her and Buster. They were truly down to earth people. I think of the great times we spent together.They always had a smile when I visited them in Mo. I feel very blessed to have known this truly wonderful couple . Ernie Wolfe , Gore, Va
