

Ryan Paul Dieleman

April 9, 1980 - March 20, 2025

Ryan Paul Dieleman, age 44, of Kansas City, Missouri, passed away Thursday, March 20, 2025, at his mother's home in Laurie. He was born April 9, 1980, in Kansas City, a son of Ronald Gene and Donna (Callaway) Dieleman.

Ryan loved bartending and was currently working at Char Bar in Kansas City, Missouri. He treasured the friendships he made there over the years.

He is survived by his mother, Donna Dieleman of Laurie; brother, Tracy Dieleman and wife Sherleen of Holden, Missouri; numerous nieces, nephews and great-nieces and nephews and many friends. He was preceded in death by his father, Ronald Gene Dieleman.

A celebration of Ryan's life will be held at a later date.

Cremation arrangements are under the direction and care of the Kidwell-Garber Laurie/Sunrise Beach Chapel.

Tribute Wall

DS

“ Donna, I'm so sorry for your loss. I lost my son, Greg, too, so I share your loss. Please call me sometime, 816-304-3721. You are in my prayers.

Dianne Schneider - April 04, 2025 at 03:16 PM

SH

“ Ryan, you were a light in all the chaos. I feel horrible that we haven't talked in the last couple of years. Now, you're a reminder to do just that with others. Godspeed, my friend.

The pic is of two dear friends, taken way too soon.

Shon Hall - March 31, 2025 at 08:40 PM

“ Oh Ryan, I'll miss the beers shared and the shots. I also enjoyed you listening to me and I you. Be at Peace, my son. Be at Peace.

Paul Welch - March 27, 2025 at 06:51 PM

JB

“ This is such sad news. My little Rye Bread. I am blessed to have had him in my life. So many wonderful memories. My heartfelt condolences to his family.

Julie Belling - March 26, 2025 at 11:02 PM

TH

“ I will spend the rest of my life remembering you and how much you changed my life. I will always love you my dear sweet fry guy til the end of my days. You loved the song " I'll cover you" from Rent and didn't once shy away from singing it when we hung out. I'm devastated that I have to remember you now for the rest of our lives instead of you being here to spend it with us. I will always remember every kind word , every smile(even in the middle of treatments), and every melodious laughter that came from you. I am going to miss you so much my friend.....Trey

Trey Harris-Clymore - March 26, 2025 at 11:00 PM

Ryan,

You will always be missed by everyone who ever knew you. My heart aches for Brittany and Lauren and the rest of the family. GRMA Donna you are so loved by so many. I wrap my ar.s around you and give you the BIGGEST HUG. LOVE YOU ALL

AUNT THERESA

Theresa Dotson - March 27, 2025 at 07:48 AM

AG

“ So sorry to hear of his loss, he was the kindest soul and loved bumping into him and playing darts at various local g-bars over the years.

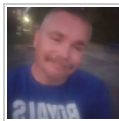

Alex GarciaWhitson - March 26, 2025 at 05:26 PM

MO

“ ryan, the first night we met you could tell i have crippling social anxiety and i mentioned amethyst was my favorite. you pulled this out of your pocket and handed it to me, every time i seen you and spoke to you you always had a smile on your face which put one on mine. you were so sweet and kind and i will forever be thankful to have met such a loving beautiful soul. i'm so sad i wont be seeing you around anymore.

Moth - March 26, 2025 at 02:00 PM

Ryan was absolutely the definition of a wonderful soul! He had absolutely a heart of gold! He always referred to me as "Mouse", and he was always "hillbilly"! His gratitude impacted so much about my life! He will forever be in my heart! Godspeed!

Ryan Mauersberger - March 26, 2025 at 06:14 PM

JB

This is such sad news. My little Rye Bread. I am blessed to have had him in my life. So many wonderful memories. My heartfelt condolences to his family.

Julie Belling - March 26, 2025 at 10:57 PM

MM

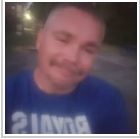

“ Ryan was always kind to me. When I split with my fiancé (at the time) he was always ready with a hug and words of support. He frequently made me smile on days that was very hard. He will be missed.

Meredith McLaughlin - March 26, 2025 at 02:58 AM

PQ

“ He always, I mean always, had a joke to share, and it was always funny. Miss you my friend. My heart goes out to those he left behind.

Patrick Quinn - March 26, 2025 at 01:28 AM

“ Ryan was the catalyst for so many friendships! I wholeheartedly want to extend my most sincere condolences, and let it be known that Ryan was literally my hero of KC!

Ryan Mauersberger - March 25, 2025 at 11:20 PM

NN

“ Ryan you will be missed dearly. You were always a great guy with a smile that lit a room up. He had a way of making smile even on your worst day. You will be missed buddy. Love you man.

Nick Newman - March 25, 2025 at 09:06 PM

SE

“ Ryan was a great guy, always there to help how ever he could. At my darkest moment after losing my brother i couldnt get myself to go back to work. he put out the idea and with the help of my brother and sister at missie b,s they held a benefit to raise money to help me catch up on rent. I'll never forget that feeling of love and care when he told me that night after everyone left of what they did and handed me that envelope. It blessed me more than the months past due. Thank you brother for that. I'm glad we shared that moment, thank you for your love. Im sorry Your light shown so bright It extinguished early. Till we see each other again.

Shawn eaton - March 25, 2025 at 08:55 PM

RM

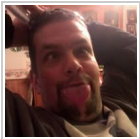

“ I am sorry to hear about this, Ryan was a great person and would do whatever he could for anyone in need. Ryan will be missed. Prayers to his family and may he r.i.p. love you Ryan.

Ric Mauk - March 24, 2025 at 06:19 PM

KM

“ May he rest in eternal peace. Condolences, love and light to all who knew and cared for him. Ryan may your journey forward exceed your expectations. So sorry for your loss.

Karen McEnaney - March 24, 2025 at 12:49 PM

“ Nate Lofland lit a candle in memory of Ryan Paul Dieleman

Nate Lofland - March 24, 2025 at 03:30 AM

JW

“ Donna, So sorry for the loss of your son, I had never meet him, sending Prayers to you and your family.

Joyce A White - March 23, 2025 at 08:59 AM