“ So many memories with my father in law but one very fond memory was when he got me and his son together. He decided to play match maker and it actually worked. Even before he became my father in law, he was like my adopted dad... He would help me anytime I needed help with my kiddo. He was an amazing Papa. Everytime he'd come in from trucking, our conversations were racing and horses!!! I really can't imagine life without him but I'm gonna do everything I can to make him proud and take care of his family. I love you dad!
