Shirley, my cousin, was a real sweet lady. She will be missed. I have one of her beautiful paintings of a covered bridge. She was into crafts and painting and had a love for animals and flowers. As a child I remember her sweet dog Mimi. On a funny note, she loved to eat out at McDonald's because it was cheap. Last time I saw her this is where we went (yuck). I had planned on taking her to a nice place but she said, "no, we should go to McDonalds". "I'm like, really? I'm buying and I'd rather go somewhere nicer with better food and more variety" and she said, "no, I want to go to McDonalds", so that's where we went. Gotta love her. She had her ways and I wouldn't have had it any other way.

“ As I look above the door going into our dining room, I see the nice "welcome to our home" decorative that Shirley made for Yvonne and I in commemoration of our wedding in 1986. When I was in the 1st grade at Ball School in 1951, I can remember Geraldine and Shirley waiting to board Jess Morris' school bus in the mornings. May memories comfort you during this time.
