“ Shirley ,will be greatly missed. I'm so sorry, that I wasn't around when she passed. She will forever be My Aunt Shirley. My grandparents, thought of her has their own daughter. Jimmy (Aaron L. Stotler and Rhonda B. Stotler) .My fondest/funniest memory of Shirley, was her in our backyard of our house. Wearing a trench coat, jock strap, and bunny ears . I will forever miss her yodeling when she would sing .Or when she tried , to make a pineapple upside down cake and flipped it in the oven before it had time to bake. Her service was on my youngest daughters birthday. When my daughter was born, she was a pre/me ( premature) baby (April 6th 2001). I had called Shirley, to let her know. My daughter came home from the hospital on April 11th .I told Shirley, I was early on the gift. She told me, "That's ok ,It was a gift you can keep ,Be cause I can't return it!" With all my love to the family. Rochelle A. Stotler- Dalrymple (aka) Shelly

“ Shirley since the day I meet her was always a happy person and the life of the party. Through all of her battles and struggles of life she kept a positive mental attitude. She did have faith in God and believed in the LORD Jesus Christ as her Savior! All of my children loved her so much. Shirley, you will be missed!

With all of my love, Your CUZZ... Vernon McGee
