“ So many memories of Steve that I could type for the next week. By far my funniest memory of Steve was us driving down Highway 99 in California and he looked over at a dairy along the side of the road and said "Mark, they always have that big pile of dirt for the cows to stand on. Why do they give the cows that pile of dirt?" I chuckled at him and said "Hey city boy, I got news for you..... that ain't dirt!" He looked at me for a few seconds and then it dawned on him and he just put a hand on his stomach and said "Uhhhhh, I'll never drink milk again."

I had googled Steven's name hoping to find an email address for him because I had been thinking about him alot lately and wanted to get back in touch with him. I had searched a few times and could never find an email address. Was crushed to find out of his passing. I have met alot of people in my days but never anyone like Steve. I will certainly never forget him.

I was so saddened to find out about your loss. Dr E was one of my instructors and is sorely missed. I just asked why wasn't he teaching Bus law II and I was told that he had passed. I was so shocked and devastated at the same time. I just though he was slacking when his learning page hadn't been updated and thought that wasn't like him. He spoke often of the love of his life in his classes. I didn't know you but felt as if we all did because of his class discussions. May you find peace and and blessings. He was an awesome teacher!!!! I still have notes of encouragements on papers I saved because of his positive nature.RIP DR E. Columbia College student FLW campus CC. Rosencrans

*The family of Dr. Steven Elberg thanks you for your loving comments. My husband was a humble man, with more talent than he told me...for ex., he was the lead singer in his high school plays, in Brooklyn, New York, and he never told me or bragged...he knew many celebrities, met John Lennon, Dustin Hoffman, Vincent Price, Lloyd Bridges, Andy Williams and many more...Dr. E. was a professional musician before he went to law school. He was also a DJ on the radio, an entertainment coordinator for Holiday Inn, Director of the Fair Housing Council, in Fresno, Ca. He is a published author, and was Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review. He recently wrote a book and also songs. He was reading Tolstoy at 2 years old...he was brilliant, respected, talented, yet humble and loving. He has a huge, world-wide following. Friends all over the world that he has taught have contacted us. I am grateful Dr.E. will be always remembered through his teaching,He lives on in all who knew this hallowed man. He was a gift from the Lord and he is with Him in Heaven now, sleep in peace,
Dear One. His loving wife, Charlene Eckhardt-Elberg*
