“ I miss him more than I can say, the woods will never be the same without him. I followed brother Steve into the woods at 7 years old and for the rest of my life until he passed away. He taught me to hunt, fish, cook, field dress, butcher and eat just about everything. And we enjoyed many years of each other’s company. He could fix just about anything that was broke and was always there when I needed him. Some people in this world just can’t be replaced, that was brother Steve. He once made us linguine and clams over the camp fire in the middle of nowhere...you would swear it came out of the kitchen of the finest Italian restaurant you ever visited....that was Steve. His ribs were legendary, and he always made enough to share. We miss you Steve!!

“ Only knew Steve since he accepted a Licensed Sewer employee of our City of Laurie.

I always felt at ease with him and I heard that he really organized the Sewer Plant really well. He seemed to be a perfectionist at whatever he did. One year for gifts to employees, I brought Homemade Apple Butter, only to find out it was one of his favorites. Linda, you were so blessed with this good man. Dick and I wish you our deepest Sympathies as you go thru this grieving time. We are here for you if you need anything! Thanks for your service to the City Steve. Karen and Dick Dobbins

“ I have so many memories with this man. I will never forget the times we had together and the amazing food he'd cook my spoiled butt. Watching him shoot with the kiddos and teach Sis how to cook in her chef hat and apron. He was always there and a wonderful grandpa. Felicity, Nathan, and myself are very blessed to have him in our lives. We love and miss you very much. Fly high

“ Steve was a part of both of my children's lives and my children were blessed for it. He was kind and loving to the children in Linda's care, sharing his home with them and his heart. I will always remember Steve planting morning glories for Rachel because she loved them so much. He would carry her out to see them every morning. You will be missed❤️
