

Steven Wolff

April 19, 2009

Steven Edward Wolff of Columbia, Mo, loving son and brother, died on Sunday April 19, at his home at the age of 57. Steven was born in Glens Falls, NY, on August 18, 1951 to Nora Regina Wolff and Robert Llewellyn Wolff. He spent his early years growing up in LaGrange Park and Lumbard, II, Overland Park, Ks and Philadelphia, Pa.

Steven earned a Master's degree at the University of Washington in Animal Psychology and went on to work at various Veterinarian Hospitals and Zoo's such as Australia, Seattle, Wa, San Francisco, Ca and Columbia, Mo. He traveled the world and lived a life of true adventure. He loved to hitch hike in his early years and was able to travel to Europe, Ireland, Hawaii, Canada, Australia and all across the United States until finally settling down near his family in Columbia, Mo. He so loved animals and cared for them all his life. He was very much an inspiration to those that knew and loved him and will be missed by all.

Steven leaves behind his loving mother, Nora Regina Wolff of Laurie, Mo; Brother's Rik and Robert Wolff of Kansas City Missouri, Brian (Kathy) Wolff of Raytown, Mo; Sister's Gerri Wolff-Stanton and Nancy (Christopher) Kuse of Camdenton, Mo; Noreen (Steven) Loone of Vacaville, Ca and Sister-in-Law Laurie Chang (Wolff) of Albany, Or; Niece's Kali and Kayla Kuse, Heidi Wolff-Stanton, Savannah Wolff and Nephew's Sean Wolff and Christopher Loone.

Steven was preceded in death by his father Robert Llewellyn Wolff, brother, Michael James Wolff, DVM, brother-in-law David Stanton, maternal grandparents Anne and Malachy Cleary and paternal grandparents Edward and Charlotte Wolff.

Private mass of Christian burial will be performed Saturday May 9, 2009, at the Shrine of St. Patrick's in Laurie, Mo. Burial will follow in Old St. Patrick's Church Cemetery on Rte O in Laurie, Mo. Funeral arrangements were made under the direction of Kidwell Garber Funeral Home of Versailles, Mo, 573-378-4655.
