

Tinnie Marie Hess

September 11, 1933 - September 16, 2016

Tinnie Marie Hess, of Kansas City, Missouri, passed away peacefully September 16, 2016, with her children by her bedside.

Tinnie was a native of Versailles, Missouri, born September 11, 1933. She married her sweetheart, Roy E. Hess of Versailles and had 64 wonderful married years together before his death in 2013.

She enjoyed her church, her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, playing dominoes and searching for the hot deal at garage sales. Tinnie enjoyed cooking for the holidays. She was a wonderful old fashioned cook and you could always look forward to her candy and pies. Everyone that knew Tinnie will always remember how her outfit always had to match perfectly. During holidays, there was never a doubt she was celebrating with everything about the holiday reflected in her outfit.

Tinnie leaves behind daughter, Linda Jackson; daughter, Charlotte Phillips and son in-law, Richard Phillips; son, Roland Hess and daughter in-law, Jera Hess; grandchildren, Adam Jackson and his wife Angela, Shane Jackson and his wife Brandi and Harrison Hess and great-grandchildren, Madeline, Ian, Eli, Will and Nathan. She also leaves behind many special friends at Golden Living Nursing Home that cared for her and loved her for the past three years. She has found her way home to God's arms and to her beloved husband. She will be missed.
