“ Tyla was a very good friend of mine throughout middle school and highschool. I'll never forget the sleep over we had at your house with Patrick, and Ashley. You were an amazing person and I will miss you dearly. I know we haven't talked in forever. But you had an amazing heart. I love and will miss you.

“ Tyla lived near me for the better part of our elementary and middle school years together. When she lived on MM I think I stayed the night and we ate twizzlers and watched ridiculous movies and we pushed each other off the chair and both landed on little bells, we thought we broke our tail bones haha, we grew apart but those memories stay with you.

“ One of my favorites, cuz I have many, is when Tyla was 3, Cindy had gone to the grocery store, I stayed with her, she walks out of the bedroom, wearing shorts @ her cow girl boots, she has her hands on her hips, frowned up face, and she asks me "is momma back yet".

“ There was so much left unsaid... I seen you only a couple of weeks ago. I never would have imagined that some thing like this would ever happen. We used to talk about how either of us would feel if the other was gone but I never comprehended that it would ever happen....I wish I could have told you goodbye, wish I would have looked at you a little longer, hugged you a little harder, and told you how much you meant to me one last time before god took you away from me. I just hope that wherever you are, you're as happy as you always wanted to be. I love you Tyla DeAnn, you were like a sister to me and this life will never be the same without you. But I must keep these words in mind as to why the good die young....if I was God, in a garden full of flowers, I would pick the most beautiful ones as well..... :(
