“ As one of the six kids she raised mostly on her own as my dad traveled a lot for work, I know that she was a Dynamo. She was small, all her kids are bigger than her, she had a huge presence. She never let things get her down for long and she enjoyed life to the fullest. She never met a stranger and if something was going on you can bet she was in the middle of it, likely taking charge and keeping everyone in line. She was loyal and giving and she was loved. ”
