

Winston Cooper "Bud" Mitchell

October 30, 2010

Winston Cooper "Bud" Mitchell, age 64, of Barnett, Missouri, passed away Saturday, October 30, 2010, at his home. He was born April 19, 1946, Kansas City, Missouri, the son of the late Buford Joseph and Patricia Lee Baker Mitchell.

In 1967, in Liberal, Missouri, he was united in marriage to Joyce Bloom, who survives.

Bud was a graduate of Camdenton High School and attended Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg.

Together with his wife, Joyce, he opened Almost Everything Antique Mall in Laurie, in 1978, which he operated until he retired in 2003. Bud was a knowledgeable antique collector, and enjoyed accumulating antiques.

He was a member of the NRA, and he enjoyed hunting and fishing, especially with his grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife, Joyce of Tipton; his son, William Joseph "Bunky" Mitchell of Kansas City, Missouri; his daughter, Misty Dawn Mitchell-Hunter and husband Jason of Gravois Mills, Missouri; two grandchildren, Mia Renee Hunter and Owen Cooper Cleveland Hunter both of Gravois Mills, Missouri; his good friend Patty Sanders of Barnett, Missouri; his brother, Joseph Lee Mitchell of Camdenton, Missouri; and many other relatives and friends. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his loving step-father, James Statler.

In keeping with Bud's wishes, he was cremated and no memorial services will be held. Expressions of sympathy may be left online at www.kidwellgarber.com. Arrangements are under the direction of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.
